From Your Principal...

Greetings, Parishioners. Our school is closed this week for Thanksgiving break. Personally, Thanksgiving is my favorite holiday because it is one of the last holidays left that has not been hijacked by unnecessary, excessive gifts and boatloads of candy. In the Marino home, we use this time to thank God for all of the blessings He has bestowed upon our family. We spend the day focusing on family, friends, food, and football. At dinner time, my family and I go around the table and share what we are thankful for.

This year, I will once again be including all of you. The support that you continue to give me and our school is truly a blessing. St. Jerome is a special place, and I am grateful to be a part of it. I wish you all a beautiful and blessed Thanksgiving.

Gratefully,
Mrs. Tara Marino
Principal, St. Jerome Catholic School

“For as in one body we have many parts, and all the parts do not have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ* and individually parts of one another. Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us exercise them” - Romans 12: 4-6

“We are one body, one body in Christ, and we do not stand alone” - John Michael Talbot

Mission Statement

Saint Jerome Catholic School is a Eucharistic family that empowers students to grow in knowledge, love, and respect. Inspired by the Gospel, we engage our parish and school community in joyful service.

Quotes from Padre Pio

Padre Pio

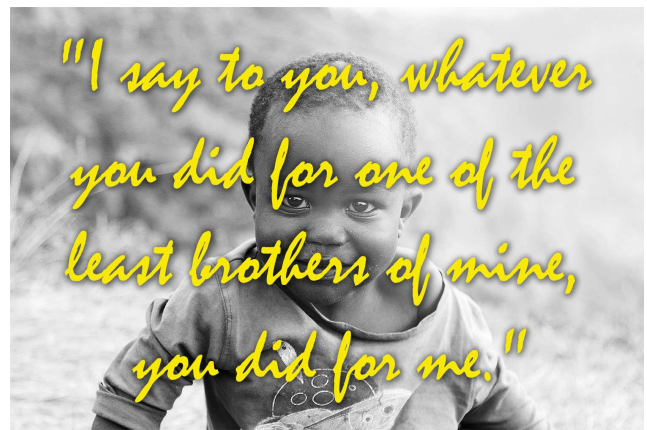

"Don't let temptations alarm you. They are the trials of the soul that God wants to test, seeing it strong enough to sustain the battle and weave the wreath of glory with its own hands. "

Padre Pio

"No dejes que las tentaciones te alarmen. Son las pruebas del alma que Dios quiere probar, viéndola lo suficientemente fuerte como para sostener la batalla y tejer la corona de gloria con sus propias manos. "
