

PAWS Athlete's Responsibility and Code of Conduct

Athletes Must:

- Demonstrate respect for the Roman Catholic Church, its culture and traditions.
- Remember that schoolwork must remain highest priority.
- Understand and abide by the rules and philosophy of St. Jerome Catholic School and the coaches.
- Attend all practices and event for the duration of the season unless excused by the coaches.
- Be on time for practices and games and come prepared to play.
- Always show respect for the people, property and equipment involved in the St Jerome athletic program. This includes teammates, coaches, referees, and opponents.
- Do not argue with the officials. The head coach should be the only person talking with the officials. If you have an issue, discuss it with your coach.
- Practice good sportsmanship with the players and coaches from the opposing team. Win or lose.
- Remember to have fun, it is a game.
